STAR SOCCER GOALIE IN NEW POSITION

One of the leading soccer goalies in British Columbia until injuries forced him to the sidelines, Louis DeCosta is back in the sports picture in a bigger and more important role, that of president of the Canadian Legion Sports Centre.

Something entirely new in its field, the Canadian Legion Sports Centre is the parent body for all sports sponsored by Legion branches in this area. Four branches, Britannia, H.M.C. Dockyard, Naval Veterans and Pro Patria are all represented on this executive body, and each branch is assessed a certain sum for sports entertainment.

According to DeCosta, the plans call for Canadian Legion representation in all branches of athletics in this city in one of the most comprehensive sponsorship programs ever attempted here. Basketball, soccer, Canadian football and bowling are being catered too at the moment, while during the Summer months the seasonable sports such as fastball, baseball, lacrosse and track and field will be added to the program.

"We are newcomers to Victoria's athletic fold and may not do so well right now, but we are building for the future," DeCosta said yesterday. "We plan to give every kid a chance, and are interested in providing good, clean entertainment for our members and their many friends," he added.

With his lengthy active career on the sports front behind him and his first-class knowledge of the various fields of athletics to draw on, Louis DeCosta is the right man in the right place. His desire to do a good job augurs well for the eventual success of the elaborate scheme the Canadian Legion branches have seen fit to inaugurate.

GATHERED FROM HERE AND THERE

Capt. A. Spiers, Army, and Cmdr. A. Parks, R.C.N.V.R., are busy with plans for the monster inter-service boxing show to be held at the Bay Street Armoury on Saturday, February 2. The card will feature the appearance of the top-flight leather throwers from Vancouver and the Island . . . Bill Gornall, "Rep" Rugby player, captained Oak Bay Wanderers for their game last Saturday against the Bays, and they lost 39-3. But that was not the fault of the popular skipper . . . Decision of the Victoria and District Football League to switch to individual clubs instead of a picked team for inter-city fixtures should prove popular . . . Marion Kennedy, lanky star of Coach Ivan Temple's Hudson's Bay women's cage quintette, is enjoying a good season on the maple court . . . Juvenile soccer is suffering from the shortage of referees. Former players willing to lend a hand in encouraging the future players should contact officials of the Lower Island Junior and Juvenile Football Association . . . Rugger fans are looking forward to Saturday's Barnard Cup fixture between the Bays and Victoria College. After all, top berth in the second-half standings will be at stake . . . "Siki" Sturrock, Canadian football star of a few seasons ago, is a regular spectator at English Rugby fixtures, but does not express any desire to get into action . . . Darrel Popham, son of Eddie Popham, well-known former lacrosse and soccer player and official, is developing into quite a rugger player for Victoria College.

Louis-Conn Title Fight Will Be Held In Yankee Stadium

Heavyweight Championship Bout Is Set for June 19—Record Attendance Anticipated

NEW YORK, Jan. 16 (CP).—Joe Louis and Billy Conn will meet in Yankee Stadium, New York City, Wednesday night, June 19, in their "hot" heavyweight boxing championship return match, Promotor Mike Jacobs announced today. He predicted the fight will draw the greatest gate in fistic history.

The bout will give the Pittsburgh fighter his second shot at Louis' crown just five years and one day after the first meeting in 1941. Conn then came closer than any other challenger to dethroning the brown bomber, until Louis knocked him out in the 13th round.

That battle was held in the Polo Grounds, across the Harlem River from the Bronx Borough stadium, before a crowd of 60,071 and a gate of $451,743.

The promoter said with improvements now being built at the stadium, the huge ballyard will seat more than 100,000 fans for a boxing match. And with a $100 ringside "top" in prospect, Jacobs thought the total receipts would pass the all-time high of $2,658,660 paid by 104,943 fans who saw the second Jack Dempsey-Gene Tunney bout in Chicago 19 years ago. Tops was $40 for ringside for that battle.

Before making the final decision for a locale Jacobs conferred with Chairman Eddie Eagan of the New York State Athletic Commission. Eagan told him it was "the earnest desire of Governor Dewey that the long-awaited title event take place in New York."

Louis' last stadium appearance was in 1940 when he knocked out Arturo Godoy in eight rounds. The second Conn fight will be the 23rd defence in Louis' record run as heavyweight champion, which he won from Jim Braddock in Chicago.

He last put his title on the line March 27, 1942, when he took ample Abe Simon apart in six rounds for the benefit of army emergency relief. Since then Louis, like Conn, has been in the army and both have put on hundreds of exhibitions.

Dartnell Cops Four Goals as Seattle Wins

SEATTLE, Jan. 16 (CP).—Eddie Dartnell jammed in four goals tonight to set the pace as the tail-end Seattle Ironmen thumped New Westminster's Royals 5-2, in a Pacific Coast Hockey League game.

The game was more than half over when Dartnell began his one-man show of ice-scorching. Neither team tallied in the opening period but kept the goalies busy, Stubby Mason turning back 16 shots at the Royals' cage and Al Rollins balking seven attempts for Seattle.

The Ironmen spotted New Westminster a pair of goals before cracking into the scoring column. Before half a minute was gone in the second period Fred Smitten rammed home the first one for New Westminster on a fast combination play with Koch and Dorohoy. Bill Snider followed with a score unassisted for the Royals.

The period was more than half over when Dartnell boomed his first tally past Mason, unaided. Just before the period ended Evers of the Royals and Jenkins of Seattle were booted into the penalty box for fighting, and Seattle shoe-horned two more goals. Dartnell got the first and Bill Robinson the second, in the last minute of play.

Dartnell got his last pair of goals in 30 seconds of fast action late in the third period.

Parks Committee Ready to Assist Injured Players

THE city parks committee will recommend to the City Council that the city turn over its share of the gate receipts from a football game at Royal Athletic Park to the Injured Players' Fund of the Victoria and District Football League, Alderman Duncan D. McTavish, chairman, said yesterday following a meeting of the city parks group.

The committee will also recommend to the council that the Victoria and District Football League have the use of the park until April 15, when it will be taken over by the Victoria Baseball & Athletic Co., Ltd.

The committee hopes to obtain former army buildings at Holland Point through War Assets Corporation for use as dressing-rooms in public parks, Alderman McTavish added.

Huskies Capture Conference Game

PULLMAN, Wash., Jan. 16 (AP).—The University of Washington basketball team, swinging back into stride after last night's defeat, won over Washington State College, 56-42, tonight, and gained an edge of three-out-of-four games in the series between the two schools.

Washington led 33-20 at half-time.

The victory failed to change Washington's status in second place in the Northern Division, Pacific Coast Conference, with three wins and one loss. Oregon State College is the leader with three wins and no defeats.

Creamerymen Eagles and Bays Triumph

Northwestern Creamery proved that they will be a definite factor in the men's senior "B" play-offs last night at the High School gymnasium when they edged out Black and Whites, 29-27, in a scrambly, hard-fought contest. The victory was the second in three nights for the creamerymen over the top two teams in the circuit. In other games, Eagles remained undefeated in the intermediate "B" section by trimming St. Louis College, 39-22, and Hudson's Bay were not extended too much in taking the points from a combined Eaglettes-Unitys squad, 41-28.

With an assured first-place deadlock if they could take the points last night, Black and Whites could not cope with the fight of their opponents and dropped a tough decision. The defeat left them with three losses against two for the Legion, who have two games in hand and will take the league title if they can win from Brentwood Aces and the Eagles.

Tom McKeachie's foul shot on a technical against Joe Travis and his basket from out in front with a minute to play provided the margin of victory in the ding-dong contest after Uttke had given the Black and Whites the lead with three quick points.

Winners took an early lead which they held until late in the second quarter when McKay pushed up two baskets in a row to leave the taximen on the long end of a 14-12 count at the halfway mark. The milkmen again forged to the front in the first minutes of the third session but Travis shoved up two quick field goals from scrambles to leave the score tied at 21-21 as the teams entered the final ten minutes.

Doug Whyte, who played a fighting game all evening, and Ralph Baker swished through a pair of long ones to again give the creamerylites the lead, but the losers fought back with Perkins tossing one in from the side and Uttke putting them in front momentarily before McKeachie came through with the winning points. Baker and Travis exchanged foul shots in the last minute but the cabmen could not get the all-important tying basket.

Led by Red McMillan, whose 15 points put him second in the race for individual scoring honors in the intermediate "B" section, Eagles were off to an early lead over the Collegians and outscored them in each quarter to win handily. Cranston Browning accounted for three points to leave him in a second-place deadlock with McMillan at 83 points, one behind Rex Weaver, K.V.'s.

Practically sewing up the scoring honors in the women's section with 12 points, Marion Kennedy paced the Hudson's Bay to their tenth straight league win. In a desperate effort to knock off the leaders, Wally Yeamans injected some of the better players on the Eaglettes into the Unitys line-up but the combination was not up to the task as the winners racked up 15 points in the last quarter. Jane Rowe hooped through five field goals for her best scoring effort since returning to the court. Elaine Barry's ten was high for the losers.

In two minor games at the Y.M.C.A., K.V.'s took the points in each, their juniors trouncing Mooney's Crescents, 39-27, and the midgets edging St. Louis College, 27-24.

Line-ups and scores follow:

"Doc" Blanchard Gains Coveted Honors

Felix "Doc" Blanchard, the great fullback of the United States Army football team, is shown with the Heisman Memorial Trophy, which is awarded annually to the most "outstanding college gridder of the year." Wilfred Wootrich presents the trophy in New York.

Duncan Lee Leading Scorer In City Basketball League

One of the most valuable players in the men's senior "B" section of the Victoria and District Basketball League, Duncan Lee, high-scoring forward of the Chinese Students, leads his division in the scoring summary with 192 points in 13 games to date, according to figures released by Bert Simpson yesterday. Lee has pushed up 76 field baskets and made good on 40 out of 74 foul shot attempts to give him an average of almost 15 points per game. Joe Bryant and Joe Travis, both of the Black and Whites, are in second and third place, respectively, with little chance of catching the Chinese star in remaining games.

Scoring figures in other sections reveal close races for the individual honors with remaining league games likely to decide the issue. Larry Booth heads the intermediate "A" loop with 89 points, followed closely by two teammates, Vince Clarkson and Ken King, with 78 and 74 points, respectively.

Ron Weaver, K.V.'s, holds a slight margin over Cranston Browning, Eagles, 56-52, in the boys' intermediate "B" league. Clarkson, Monaghan and McDougall, all St. Louis College players, are still very much in the running. Race for the honors in the women's section is a two-way affair between Marion Kennedy, Hudson's Bay, and Elaine Barry, Eaglettes, with the former out in front, 118-110.

Leading scorers in each section follow:

Byron Nelson Withdraws From Tourney

RICHMOND, Calif., Jan. 16 (AP).—The field in the $10,000 Richmond golf tourney was thrown wide open tonight when Byron Nelson, leading money-winner of the touring pros, withdrew. He will return to Toledo, Ohio, to tend to his umbrella business and "get a physical checkup."

Nelson, in a practice warmup for the tournament starting tomorrow, was observed limping and apparently suffering from a muscle injury.

"I don't intend to play in all the tournaments this Winter and I have to return to Toledo immediately on business," he told associates.

He added that "I plan to get a physical checkup when I get home."

Nelson, who accumulated $66,000 last year and was named golfing man of the year, withdrew from the tour in October and took a two-month layoff. He had played in 30 consecutive tournaments.

Although Nelson announced he would be off the tour indefinitely, Fred Corcoran, secretary of the P.G.A., said he may return before the tour's close.

After the Richmond open, the pros move to Phoenix, Ariz., for a January 24-27 tournament, in which Nelson is defending champion.

Nelson has won the last three tournaments, topping the $10,000 Fort Worth, Texas, open by nine strokes, the $12,333 Los Angeles open by five strokes and the $15,000 San Francisco open by nine strokes.

With the magic man's departure, the runners-up in those tournaments get a full crack at the first-place purses. Among the top bracket men are Slammin' Sam Snead, Harold McSpaden, Jim Ferrier, Dick Metz, Ben Hogan, Jimmy Demaret and Jimmy Hines.

Snead is defending champion here, he toured the 71-par course three days ago in 69.

Karakas Stars as Chicago Pucksters Defeat Canadiens

Turns in Brilliant Exhibition as Hawks Triumph, 2-1—Bruins Nose Out Rangers, 3-2

Last night's scores: Chicago 2, Canadiens 1; Boston 3, Rangers 2.

Next game, tonight: Boston at Rangers.

MONTREAL, Jan. 16 (CP).—Rallying around Goalie Mike Karakas, who turned in one of the most spectacular exhibitions of puck stopping on Forum ice this season, Chicago Black Hawks eked out a 2-1 verdict from Montreal Canadiens tonight to climb into a first-place tie with Canucks atop the National Hockey League standing.

Canucks held a decisive edge on the play over Hawks from the opening whistle to the last wailing of the siren, but Karakas proved an impregnable barrier, turning aside one vicious shot after the other to avert what probably would have been a certain Chicago defeat.

After a scoreless initial period, Black Hawks sailed in front in the mid-session on a goal by Red Hamill. Billy Reay scored for Canucks in the opening minutes of the last frame, but Hawks came rollicking back and George Gee sealed the verdict for Chicago with a solo effort.

Along with Karakas, the Black Hawk defence played a gruelling game, while the standout trio for Montreal consisted of Pivotman Billy Reay and Winger Moe White and Murdo McKay. White arrived from overseas recently and was playing his first game for Canucks, while McKay, brought up from Buffalo Bisons, received his baptism of fire in the National Hockey League.

Hamill scored in the mid-session when he took a neat pass from Johnny Mariucci in a scramble around the nets and beat Goalie Paul Bibeault with a high shot from ten feet out which hit the Montreal custodian, but Bibeault fumbled with it and it finally escaped into the net.

Reay scored in the last frame when he slapped home a relay from White while Karakas was still recovering from White's sizzling shot.

Gee added the winner for Hawks three minutes after when he snared a loose puck at his own blue line and beat a solo path through the Montreal defence to outwit Bibeault with a whistling shot from close in.

SUMMARY

First Period—Scoring, none. Penalties, Bouchard, Reardon.

Second Period—3, Chicago, Hamill (Mariucci), 3:42. Penalty, Mariucci.

Third Period—2, Montreal, Reay (McKay, White), 4:13; 3, Chicago, Gee, 8:19. Penalties, none.

BRUINS RALLY TO TURN BACK RANGERS

BOSTON, Jan. 16 (AP). — After being held scoreless for 50 minutes, Boston Bruins set off a three-goal scoring burst to overtake New York Rangers for a 3-2 victory in the opener of their home-and-home National Hockey League series tonight before a packed 13,900 crowd at the Boston Garden.

Woody Dumart, aided by his Kitchener linemates, Milt Schmidt and Bobby Bauer, caged the "clincher" with less than five minutes to play.

While operating at top speed the Bruins were unable to get a shot on the New York net until the 19th minute of play and during the scoreless first session, the Rangers outshot them by a 6-3 margin.

Former Bruin Ab Demarco supplied the first New York goal during the 14th minute of second-period play. Early in the finale, Phil Watson rifled in a 30-footer to give the blueshirts a 2-0 lead that seemed more than enough at that stage of the game.

The Bruins finally got organized at 10:55 when Bauer, after a spectacular rink-length dash, ruined Chuck Rayner's shutout with a blistering close-up shot. That tally gave the home forces a mighty lift and, during the next five minutes or so, they put so much pressure on the New York goalie that he was cracked by Beppo Guidolin who converted a passout, and then beaten by the hard-playing Dumart, who

At the Theatres

Jack Oakie Star Of Hilarious Film

Peggy Ryan and Johnny Coy shared their first screen kiss as lovers during the making of Universal's "That's the Spirit," which comes to the Cadet Theatre today. Coy, [illegible] has appeared only in "Duffy's Tavern" and "Bring On the Girls," had never before gone through the ordeal of a kiss under the eyes of camera and production staff.

However, only two takes were needed before his and Peggy's osculation was pronounced satisfactory by Director Charles Lamont.

Jack Oakie is Peggy's co-star in "That's the Spirit." In the large supporting cast are June Vincent, Arthur Treacher, Gene Lockhart, Andy Devine and Buster Keaton.

Hit Musical at The Atlas Theatre

[illegible] all-star musical romance based on the life and music of George Gershwin, will open today at the Atlas Theatre. The role of the immortal American composer is portrayed by Robert Alda, newly-created star, while other outstanding roles are filled by Joan Leslie, Alexis Smith, Charles Coburn, Julie Bishop, Albert Basserman, Morris Carnovsky and Rosemary DeCamp. In addition, many top-ranking personalities of stage and screen—Oscar Levant, Al Jolson and Paul Whiteman—are included in the cast.

YORK THEATRE Because of its sensational reception, "A Song to Remember" will continue its run at the York Theatre until Saturday. "A Song to Remember" is the Columbia Pictures' Technicolor production starring Paul Muni and Merle Oberon and featuring Cornel Wilde. It tells the story of the love affair between the great composer of romantic melodies, Chopin, and the bewitching George Sand, famous Nineteenth Century novelist and feminist. Charles Vidor directed from the screen play of Sidney Buchman. It is a Sidney Buchman production.

CAPITOL THEATRE One of Hollywood's easiest-going players is, paradoxically, also one of the toughest fighters in the picture business. She is Barbara Stanwyck, currently co-starring with Dennis Morgan and Sydney Greenstreet, in Warners' "Christmas in Connecticut" at the Capitol Theatre. Every crew member who has ever worked with her during her seventeen years in the film capital will tell you unhesitatingly that he worships her.

DOMINION THEATRE "'The Crusades,'" says DeMille, "belongs to the cycle which I started with 'The Ten Commandments.'" "The Crusades," with Henry Wilcoxon and Loretta Young heading a cast of 10,000, ends tonight at the Dominion Theatre. The sweeping, crashing battle scenes and the tender love episodes which bring the film to its climax, show how Wilcoxon wins back his bride and finds the greatest of all victories in peace.

PETER RABBIT'S BIG COUSIN

"Look who's coming!"

Jimmy Skunk pointed over toward the Green Forest. Johnny Chuck looked. Then he rubbed his eyes and looked again.

"Is there anything wrong with my eyes?" asked Johnny Chuck, turning to Jimmy Skunk. Jimmy laughed.

"They are all right to me, he replied.

Johnny Chuck looked again over toward the Green Forest. "When did Peter Rabbit begin to grow?" he asked gravely.

"I don't know," replied Jimmy Skunk just as gravely. Then they looked at each other and began to laugh. It certainly was a funny sight coming across the Green Meadows from the Green Forest! Hopping on ahead was Peter Rabbit, looking very important and also very, very proud. Behind him came —whom do you think? You never will guess. It was someone who looks just like Peter Rabbit, only ever so much bigger. His ears are like Peter Rabbit's, only ever so much longer. His hind legs are like Peter Rabbit's only ever so much longer. He runs like Peter Rabbit. He sits up like Peter Rabbit.

Peter came hopping along up to Johnny Chuck's doorstep. "This," said he, "is my cousin, Jumper the Hare, who has come down from the Great Woods to make me a visit."

Johnny Chuck and Jimmy Skunk bowed politely and told Jumper the Hare that they were very glad indeed to meet him, and that they hoped he would like the Green Meadows so well that he would want to stay. Then Peter Rabbit bustled off with his cousin Jumper the Hare with his most important manner to call on all the little meadow people.

Johnny Chuck watched them hurry down the Lone Little Path. Every few jumps Peter's big cousin would stop and sit up. He would look this way and look that way, just as if he expected to find someone in hiding ready to spring upon him.

"My, what a timid fellow!" exclaimed Chuck. "I'd like to steal up behind him and shout "Boo!'"

Jimmy Skunk chuckled. Then he whispered to one of the Merry Little Breezes, who raced off as fast as he could go. He stopped at the house of Danny Meadow Mouse. Then Johnny Chuck and Jimmy Skunk saw Danny slip out of his back door and hide behind a clump of grass. A few minutes later along came Peter Rabbit and his cousin. Just as they passed the clump of grass Danny Meadow Mouse sprang out. Jumper the Hare jumped clear over

"This Is My Cousin, Jumper the Hare."

Peter Rabbit's head and started across the Green Meadows at a rate that made those who saw him gape in astonishment.

"That big fellow afraid of Danny Meadow Mouse!" exclaimed Jimmy Skunk in disgust.

Next story: Why Jumper the Hare Is Timid.

A Cow Invades New York's Times Square

A throwback to the days when New York's Times Square, now "The hub of the world," was farm land, is this scene of a pretty gal milking a cow. The photo was made outside a theatre during the opening of the movie, "San Antonio." The milkmaid is Kyle MacDonnell, Miss San Antonio.

Dr. Henrietta Anderson Gives Talk on Youth

Dr. Henrietta Anderson's address entitled "Is There Anything Wrong With Youth?" given to Esquimalt P.-T.A. recently was designed to stimulate a better understanding of the adolescent age. The speaker stressed the great need of understanding and consideration of the physical, mental and emotional changes that take place in the child during this [illegible] the child at an early age, giving "the truth and nothing but the truth," and above all, making as little fuss as possible without actually letting go the reins of discipline and tempering the whole with a sense of humor, were the recommendations given by Dr. Anderson.

Miss Daphne Archer and Mr. Charles Beadnell rendered vocal solos. Mrs. E. D. Burns was in charge of refreshments.

P.-T. Associations

Mr. A. Jacobs presided at the monthly meeting of the Oaklands P.-T.A. at which Mrs. W. S. Emmerton spoke briefly on Girl Guide work and Mr. T. J. Inkpen reported on attending housing and employment meetings. Mrs. T. Kay was named to act on a card party committee to be assisted by Mrs. M. Crossman and Mr. Lamont. Mrs. Crossman, Mrs Douglas, Mr. Marshall and Mr. A. Jacobs volunteered to arrange formation of a Teen Canteen. Plans are being made to hold a country fair under convenership of Mrs. R. H. McInnes.

Mrs. H. Moore, president, welcomed members of the James Bay P.-T.A. to the first meeting of the new year. She reported that steps would be taken to obtain a play lot for children in a downtown area. Miss Fletcher, of the city nursing staff, spoke on work being carried on in the schools and well baby clinics. Miss J. Skillings won the attendance cup and $237 was shown in the treasurer's report.

Renaming of Mountain Disappoints Victorian

Renaming of Castle Mountain, landmark known to thousands who have traveled through the Rockies, and which was recently renamed Mount Eisenhower in honor of the famous American general, was a bit disappointing to Mrs. Emma Gillingham, of Victoria.

Mrs. Gillingham claims to have been in that area when the mountain was named by two Irish brothers about 65 years ago. She is now 73. Accompanying her father, Theodore Sebring, to the vicinity of the mountain by wagon train during the construction of the C.P.R., Mrs. Gillingham is familiar with the early history of the region. She was at the Great Divide when the first C.P.R. train went through.

Sells Grocery Business After Forty-Six Years on Same Site

E. B. Jones' grocery store, 1302 Cook Street, stated to be the oldest established grocery store in British Columbia operatd under the same name, will shortly be under new management. The business was sold recently after operating for 46 years on the same site.

Mr. Jones opened his original store at the corner of Cook and North Park Streets in 1899 and has himself been actively engaged in the business ever since. Some 34 years ago the old store was torn down and a larger one was erected on the same site.

Recalling early days in the city, Mr. Jones said he made calls on each of his customers every morning by horse and buggy to solicit orders. Deliveries were made the same way. Several people who were among Mr. Jones' first customers were still dealing at the store, he said.

Mr. Jones has been a resident of Victoria for the past 56 years, having come here from England.

The new proprietor of the store, H. W. Gurney, was formerly in the grocery business in Cloverdale district. It is understood he will alter

As to his plans for the future, Mr. Jones stated he had made none other than that he is "going to take a good rest."

"Victoria's Own Ship," H.M.C.S. Beacon Hill, Due Soon

H.M.C.S. Beacon Hill, Above, Is Due to Arrive at Esquimalt Before the End of the Month, According to Naval Authorities. Referred to as "Victoria's Own Ship," the Sleek Frigate Was Built at Yarrows Ltd., and Since Leaving Here Early in the War Has Participated in a Number of Operations Against the Germans.

B.C. Leads in Campaign to Eradicate Costly Warble Fly

The warble fly, one of Canada's worst parasitic pests, has a name that may sound funny, but it's no joke to cattlemen and dairy farmers.

How it got its name is a mystery. It doesn't sing or warble, but it costs British Columbia in the neighborhood of a half to three-quarters of a million dollars annually in lost production of dairy products, beef and leather. The damage it causes is by direct attack. Fortunately for the country it is not a carrier of disease like the tsetse fly and many other insects.

Great though the annual cost is to industry, it could be reduced to nothing if all farmers would co-operate fully in the planned program of treatment organized by the Provincial Department of Agriculture's livestock division, according to Dr. Wallace R. Gunn, livestock commissioner.

When the warble fly appears, cattle go crazy. They refuse to feed. Cows give less milk, the calf crop is reduced, and beef cattle put on less flesh. In the range country, animals will stand in a slough for hours to get away from the fly.

It attacks the flesh, too, with consequent degrading of carsases, loss of marketable meat and lowering of hides. It is conceded that in badly infested areas the loss runs as high as $5 per animal in beef stock and $10 per animal in dairy herds.

SPEND $5,000 YEARLY IN AID TO CATTLEMEN

The British Columbia department is the first in Canada, and probably in North America, it is believed, to attack the problem on a systematic area plan. First treatments began in the Deep Creek Valley, north of Enderby, in 1939-31-32, and their effectiveness was definitely established when inspections were made a year later. With full and continued co-operation from cattle owners, the pest could be completely eradicated, Dr. Gunn says.

Cost of treatment is slight compared with results achieved. The Province contributes some $5,000 annually in materials, and is prepared to continue that assistance for another two or three years in order to make a final clean-up. If farmers do not avail themselves of the help offered, they will be the losers, Dr Gunn points out.

Sounding a warning note, Dr. Gunn predicted a possibility that markets might be closed to animals that did not come from Government-accredited warble-free areas. In addition to providing materials, the department is prepared to give advice to farmers who ask for it.

Powdered derris root is the essential ingredient of the wash used. This root comes from Malaya and supplies were cut off during Japanese occupation. British Columbia managed to build up a reserve supply that will soon be exhausted, and supplies may be short for a time, until importations from Malaya are restored.

The department supplies the wash to organized groups, preferably through district agriculturists. All it asks in return is a report on the work undertaken and the results.

Blue Funnel Ship Going to Drydock

Ss. Agamemnon, Blue Funnel Line ship, being made ready to return to the United Kingdom, will enter the Government drydock today.

Until several months ago the ship was being converted into an entertainment ship for British seamen in the Pacific. The contract was canceled and work ceased. Nearly 300 workers were affected.

For a considerable time the ship lay at the No. 2 Plant of Victoria Machinery Depot Co. Ltd., which was doing the conversion work. More than a month ago notice was received that the ship was to be made seaworthy and ready to sail for England.

While at V.M.D. her engines have been put back into shape, and Alterations have been made on the superstructure.

The ship will leave for England about the middle of next month.

A crew of nearly 90 men—including 57 Chinese—will man the ship on her return journey. Most of these men have already arrived in Victoria. Others are expected here soon from New York.

Workman Is Struck On Head by Brick

Darwin Wilkes, 1024 Pakington Street, was rushed to Royal Jubilee Hospital by city police yesterday morning after he was struck on the head by a brick which fell two storeys.

Dr. T. W. A. Gray, who attended the man later in the day, said he thought no serious injury had been sustained but X-rays were being taken as a precaution. He said Wilkes reported he had not been knocked unconscious by the blow but was only temporarily stunned.

The mishap occurred while Wilkes was working at the rear of a building at 735 Cormorant Street. George Burns, 672 Niagara Street, reported the incident to the police.

Sgt. Thomas Bannister and Constables Richard Berry and Norman Galbraith attended and took the injured man to hospital.

Booklet Gives Facts About Farm Openings

Attractively illustrated with pictures of various phases of farm life in the province, an interesting 43-page booklet entitled "Some Facts About British Columbia," has just been published.

The booklet was prepared under the direction of Hon. Frank Putnam, Minister of Agriculture, for distribution among potential new settlers in the Province. It presents interesting information on openings for farmers, horticulturists and dairymen.

Norman Watt Funeral To Be Held Tomorrow

Remains of Norman A. Watt, who died in Prince Rupert on January 9, have been forwarded to Victoria for burial. Mr. Watt was formerly Government agent in the northern city.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel, and interment will take place in Royal Oak Burial Park.

Once Majestic Sailing Ship Now a Breakwater

Originally she was a majestic four-masted, square-rigged sailing ship—one of the largest in the world. Now her hull is no more than a section of a breakwater made of sunken ships.

This is the story of Island Carrier, until recently the largest floating sawdust barge of Island Tug and Barge, Ltd. operating out of Victoria.

noon of June 16 last year. Loaded with 1,900 units of pulp chips, and docked in Port Alberni harbor, the vessel burst into flame. Encouraged by a stiff wind fire swept through the hull. The pulp burned, the deckhouse was a smouldering mass. It was practically impossible to check the blaze.

WOODWORK BURNED AND VESSEL SANK

All woodwark in her steel hull was burned. She listed, and sank. Fortunately there had been time to tow the burning vessel out into the harbor, where she was of no danger to docks and warehouses.

After resting on the bottom for a considerable time the stricken vessel was lifted. Enough water was pumped out to enable her to float. Finally she was towed to Siwash Bay, near Sidney.

A short while ago the almost forgotten ship was towed to Powell River.

While trans-porting pulp chips from Vancouver Island to Puget Sound, the 3,375-ton vessel was towed by the powerful tug Snohomish. The gallant tug remained with the damaged vessel to the end, towing the Island Carrier to Powell River where the large hull was sunk. She joined other sunken ships to become part of a large protective sunken ship breakwater.

ORIGINALLY BUILT FOR GERMAN GOVERNMENT

Island Carrier was built in 1892 in Glasgow. She was built for the German Government, and had a long and interesting career.

During the Great War the 329-foot ship was confiscated by the United States as a prize of war. Her name was then Somali.

The local tug firm purchased the ship nine years ago from the Pacific Coyle Navigation Company, Vancouver.

Missing Men Still Sought

No trace has been found yet of three local fishermen, whose boats have been found completely submerged during the past six weeks. Provincial Police are continuing the search.

Jack H. Grant, 470 Oliver Street, and John F. Cloke are still missing from their 30-foot gillnetter Margaret G. which was located under water December 3, nearly three miles off Brotchie Ledge.

The vessel was towed to Falconer Marine Industries Ltd., and after water was pumped from her hull and the engine greased, was left alongside a company dock. The vessel is still there.

Only the sea knows the whereabouts of 60-year-old fisherman, Jergen Sorenson, whose fishing boat Emily Kate was found submerged December 28 in Becher Bay, nearly 15 miles west of Victoria.

His ship was towed to docks of the Island Tug & Barge Ltd. in the Inner Harbor, and was later lifted from the water onto a wharf. Under the jurisriction of Customs authorities, the 32-foot trolling vessel remains on the wharf.

On February 21 last year, the wrecked fishboat Cuma Chief was found near Port Angeles. No trace has been found of its occupants—Harold "Gobby" Cain, 102 Niagara Street, and Brian May, 225 Oswego Street.

Court of Appeal Victoria Sittings

Upon opening of court yesterday morning, Walter Colvin, of the Attorney-General's Department, made application in behalf of the Crown to abandon the Crown's appeal entered against the acquittal of one Campbell by County Court Judge Sargent at Vancouver.

A motion was also heard in behalf of the Crown to quash the appeal of one Lis who was appealing from both conviction and sentence. Having failed to file notice of appeal within the time set by Crown office rules, the court granted an order quashing the appeal against conviction. An order to quash the appeal against sentence was also granted, subject to Crown counsel notifying the appellant and his counsel that the order will be taken out on January 22 unless an application to be heard is made within that time by the appellant in person or through his counsel. R. B. Wootton represented the Crown.

Wartime Harbor Restrictions End in Victoria, Esquimalt

Peacetime regulations are again in force at Victoria and Esquimalt harbors.

Capt. Charles Goring, harbor master, reported yesterday that all wartime regulations governing the entry of merchant ships and smaller craft to these harbors have now been lifted. They had been in effect for six years.

Similar restrictions have been lifted from Vancouver, and the Mainland harbor again comes under the jurisdiction of the National Harbors Board, Ottawa.

An announcement from C. P. Edwards, deputy minister of transport, notes cancellation of other prohibited areas at a number of points on Vancouver Island. This order includes: Patricia Bay, Saanich Inlet, Barkley Sound, Ucluelet Inlet, and Quatsino Sound, Quatsino Narrows.

Victoria and Esquimalt harbors are now under the Department of Transport. The boom at Esquimalt has been removed, and the naval patrol service has come to an end. Throughout the war, naval craft guarded entrances to both local harbors.

Although there is no further naval patrol service, authorities point out there will still be a close check kept on civilian craft in Esquimalt harbor.

No civilian craft will be allowed to tie up at navy jetties or docks except when in distress, or with the proper authority.

Due to the large amount of shipping in Esquimalt harbor, the prohibition on log booms in the harbor will continue.

— SAYS A REDHEAD —
I'M NOT the type who likes to pet, despite the fact I'm quite affectionate. I've got red hair and pretty green eyes, and at dances time just flies. As U can plainly see, there's nothing stiff or formal about me. Yet in all the yrs. I've been a secretary, I've never sat on a lap, or been bossy. And so those cartoons and gags aren't funny, 'cause I work efficiently hard for my money. It's just too bad for a good-looking dame, and everywhere it is the same, she finds it difficult to hold her job, 'cause the boss' wife thinks she's one of the mob. And very soon becomes suspicious, then her thinking turns to vicious. And so, because of the jealous female race, the oomph gal gets fired 'n' the frump takes her place.
WELL—I dunno . . . I never had a secretary, but I have got a studio lounge down here that when I sit on its lap it sure seems kinda cosy . . . covered in a pretty hard-wearing tapestry in rust . . .
so get oomph for a frumpy

650 ACRES OF PARKLAND, APPROXimately 70 acres of grass meadow lands. A beautiful stream flowing the year round. Such is the setting for a country resort of the highest order. Developments already carried out include a new and arresting lodge of unusual character. The exterior is sheathed with selected rough cedar. There are spacious porches both in front and rear. The main room is 18 feet by 27 feet with capacious brick fireplaces. A second room, 14 feet by 18 feet, can be used as bedroom or dining-room. The kitchen is 15 feet by 18 feet. A second bedroom and modern bathroom. A large unfinished basement and sunroom complete the present accommodation. There is a large new garage with workshop. The layout is ideal for the entertainment of dinner and supper parties. Outdoor developments include an incompleted horse or cow stable, an old but useful hay barn, several log outhouses or cabins, an old but heavy-bearing orchard. If desired, a nine-hole sporty golf links could be inexpensively laid out. There are miles of forest trails and bridle paths within the boundaries of the property itself and access to beautiful city-owned Thetis Lake. There is abundance of spring water. Electric light is available. The property is reached after a short but delightful drive on the Island Highway to Langford, thence by Millstream Road one mile. For a high-class boys' and girls' camp, as a resort catering to outing parties from Victoria, or a "dude ranch," the property has much to offer. Considering its location, its extent, its beauty and the character of the improvements, the price is reasonable. $17,500 For sale exclusively by

Cubs Turn Back Vancouver Team In Overtime, 5-4

VANCOUVER, Jan. 16 (CP)—New Westminster Cubs shaded Vancouver White Spots 5-4 in overtime in a Pacific Coast Junior Hockey League game here tonight.

Scoring in the initial period was shared, both teams registering one, but White Spots slipped through for a 3-2 lead after the middle frame.

Cubs fought back gamely in the finale and managed to even the count at 4-4, forcing the overtime, which saw New Westminster dent the twine for the winner.

Dennis Barkley and Red Dalzell paced the Cubs, both netting a pair, and Grant Maguire accounted for the other. Joe Marcoux, Lloyd Gilmour, Gordie Langton and Ken Cook scored for White Spots.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD
PICTURING THE HARVEST SEASON

Those in the Services Are Interested in Home Activities. Send Them Prints of Pictures You Take.

FOR the enterprising amateur photographer, there are picture opportunities at any time of year . . . but times of seasonal change are especially rich in chances for effective pictures.

Check over the seasonal changes that occur . . . the breaking of Winter . . . the arrival of Spring . . . blossom time . . . the approach of Autumn . . . the beginning of Winter. All these . . . and others . . . offer unusual wealth of material for worth-while pictures.

Among these seasons of change, harvest time is perhaps outstanding from a picture point of view . . . chiefly because it involves so much activity. Remember the rule, that people doing things yield interesting pictures. It is for this reason that harvest time is an ideal hunting season for the camera. Some harvest activities offer opportunity for single shots of exhibition quality . . . others are best presented as a series or sequence of pictures, telling the story step by step. But . . . whatever form is preferable . . . the picture material is there.

I have mentioned "harvest time" as if it were a short, definite period. But, taking the country as a whole, it spreads over a considerable time . . . from mid-Summer to early Winter.

People you encounter in most harvest scenes may be strangers to you. I find that many amateur photographers are diffident about asking permission to take pictures under such circumstances . . . but there is no real reason for such timidity. If you are friendly and courteous with people, and show a genuine interest in the work they are doing, your camera will be welcome . . . and if you are unfamiliar with certain harvest operations, your subjects will often be glad to show you the important points, so that your picture story will be detailed and complete.

In taking harvest pictures, try to make your shots suggest the drama and significance of the harvest. To the grower, the crop represents long toil . . . and often the greater part of a year's income. Suggest this labor, and the returns it is to bring, by choosing appropriate subject-matter and proper viewpoints. Experiment with low camera positions, at ground level, to show workers outlined strongly against the sky. Let your pictures show the roll of broad grain fields . . . get close-ups of plump, luscious fruit clustered on orchard trees . . . try for human sidelights, such as a husky, sunburned worker tilting up the water jug for a cooling drink. Try to get pictures that are a bit more than simple records of the subject.

—John van Guilder.

Victory Loan Torch Model Is Among Churchill Possessions

Early in 1941, when the fortunes of war were at a low ebb for Canada as one of the Allies, this country adopted a flaming torch as its symbol of achievement in the current Victory Loan.

A five-foot model of the torch, used in dedication ceremonies across Canada, started a momentous journey at Patricia Bay. Carried by the Royal Canadian Air Force, the torch ultimately reached Winston Churchill, being presented to him July 1, 1941, by Hon. Ian Mackenzie, Minister of Veterans' Affairs, in the garden of 10 Downing Street, London.

It represented Canadian devotion to the cause of freedom, and as such will have an honored place in a museum planned by Mr. Churchill.

The torch was placed among Mr. Churchill's possessions at 10 Downing Street, the Prime Minister's residence. Only a few weeks ago it was removed to his Hyde Park district home along with illustrated addresses and numerous other gifts presented while he held the highest British Government office.

Members of his staff said the torch was among his treasured possessions. Mr. Churchill eventually would group all his gifts in a small museum.

TOAST and TEA
By J. V. McAREE

HERE is a passage from Scott Fitzgerald's "The Great Gatsby" which might, it seems to us, have come out of "Alice in Wonderland": "He took out a pile of shirts and began throwing them, one by one, before us, shirts of sheer linen and thick silk and fine flannel, which lost their folds as they fell and covered the table in many-colored disarray. While we admired he brought more and the soft rich heap mounted higher—shirts with stripes and scrolls and plaids in coral and apple-green and lavender and faint orange, with monograms of Indian blue. Suddenly, with a strained sound, Daisy bent her head into the shirts and began to cry stormily. 'They're such beautiful shirts,' she sobbed, her voice muffled in the thick folds. 'It makes me sad because I've never seen such—such beautiful shirts before.'"

St. Luke's Parish Now Free of Debt

Burning of the mortgage of the parish hall, leaving the parish free of debt, was the highlight of the annual meeting of members of St. Luke's Church held recently. Rural Dean Pike was chairman.

The following officers were elected: S. Brooker, rector's warden; A. Edmonds, people's warden; N. C. Bell, J. Wilson, W. L. Llewellyn, C. Walton, G. Hudson Jones, F. Jefford, J. Hogg, H. Whiteoak, W. H. Carter and J. Kingsberry, church committee; A. Edmonds, R. S. Twining, G. Hudson Jones, J. Wilson, C. Walton and C. K. Lewis, synod delegates; G. Walton, Mrs. Hudson Jones and Mrs. R. Taylor, rural-decanal conference; C. L. Lytton, R. S. Twining, auditors; Mrs. W. H. Carter, Mrs. H. G. Hayes, Mrs. L. C. Ostler, Mrs. E. Bissenden, Mrs. T. S. Simson, Mrs. A. E. Tattersall, Mrs. M. C. Howell, Mrs. Hogg, Mrs. R. Taylor, Mrs. E. G. Ferne and Mrs. L. Miller, missionary committee.

At the request of the rector a vote was taken and it was unanimously decided he should continue as incumbent. Encouraging reports of the years activities were received from all church organizations, and from St. David's Mission, Cordova Bay, where a new church is being planned.

The meeting endorsed the building of a church at Lake Hill.

After the meeting refreshments were served by wives of the church committee.

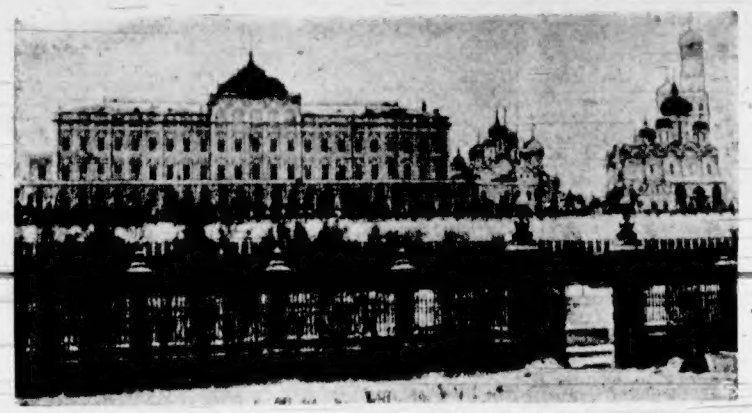

Must Increase Potatoes in B.C.

Potato yield for the whole of Canada must be increased by 3 per cent, and in British Columbia the Agricultural Production Committee is recommending that at least 1,000 additional acres of potatoes be planted in 1946.

It is considered probable that the over-all picture in Canada will be satisfactory from the production standpoint before the end of this year, but at present there is a limited supply and a keen demand for commercial potatoes.

Canada's last potato crop was only about 70 per cent of normal and British Columbia's yield is deficient. This, coupled with a heavy demand from several other countries for certified seed potatoes, suggests the importance of making immediate arrangements for purchase by the producer of all his seed potato requirements for the 1946 crop.

Chicago Grain

CHICAGO, Jan. 16 (AP).—May rye hurdled profit taking and other liquidation today to post another seasonal high price, at one time in excess of $1.90 a bushel.

Professional interests absorbed most of the offerings in the run-up in company with considerable stop-loss buying. The gains, around 3 cents a bushel most of the time, carried the advance to more than 12 cents in the last week.

With most other grains at or near ceiling prices trading in them was at a slow pace, but December oats also attracted enough buying support to post a seasonal high price.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16 (CP).—International Paper Co. has called for redemption March 1, a total of $9,350,500 outstanding 6 per cent bonds representing the bulk of the issue now outstanding, John H. Hinman, president, said today.

The bonds are being paid off from the company's own resources. Bonds redeemed will be applied toward current and future sinking fund obligations, thus eliminating the need for any further payments into the fund for several years to come. The mortgage is not being discharged at present as $200,000 bonds will remain outstanding, he said.

Honeymoon Delayed

CHADWELL HEATH, Essex, England (Reuters).—L.-Cpl. Alfred Sheldrake and his wife spent their honeymoon together at Christmas, 1945—but they had been married since 1933.

In those 12 years, they had only a few hours together. A member of the permanent army, L.-Cpl. Sheldrake had four days leave to get married and then sailed for the West Indies with his regiment. Nearly two years later he came home but stopped for only six hours at Southampton where he saw his wife there.

Posted to Palestine and then to Singapore, he received his discharge papers in August, 1939, only to have his sailing cancelled when war broke out.

He was captured at Singapore and returned to England in December.

LONDON, (CP), — Nearly 4,000 A.T.C. cadets have been awarded special six-month short courses at 100 different universities in England and Scotland since the corps was started in 1941.

Russian Attache Joins Expedition

OTTAWA, Jan. 16 (CP).—A military attache from the Russian Embassy here will accompany a party of foreign military representatives who will go to Churchill, Man., to watch the start of the Muskox exercise there February 14, it was learned tonight.

It previously had been announced that British and American experts would accompany the 45-man expedition on its 3,200-mile journey through the Canadian Northland.

Officials were asked why Russians were not included and it was stated that the main reason was that they had not asked for accommodation, limited by the fact the expedition was so small.

Mental Health

By Dr. J. B. WARREN

A boy or girl of bright parents is likely to be bright, just as a child of rugged healthy parents is likely to be strong physically. However, the child slightly below normal mentally can accomplish more for himself and others if given full opportunity; he can be taught to adjust himself to life and overcome handicaps. The essentials necessary for sound mental health are:

(a) Understanding and sympathetic parents.

(b) The banishment of ignorance, fear and superstition.

(c) A sense of humor.
